Prom Perfect

With Newport's biggest night only weeks away, "The O.C.'s" costume designer shows how to go formal with flair.

"This Jennifer Nicholson is the kind of dress I could see putting Rachel in for the show's prom episode," says Robin Lewis West, "O.C." costume designer and fashion maven extraordinaire, when presented with some of this spring's hottest prom looks. "The black-and-white pattern and the V-shape in front make it look vintage and sophisticated, which is how we've been dressing Summer. The vintage style just really looks good on her."

"Summer might go really va-va-voom [sexy] at the prom, knowing her character. For Rachel, I'm thinking Monique Lhuillier or vintage Dior or Halston."

"For Marissa, she's going to look tall and elegant no matter what, but I could go with [designers] Roberto Cavalli, Matthew Williamson or Proenza Schouler."

"This gown, by Kumari, looks a little Mischa-like; I can see Marissa in it."

"This Morgane Le Fay dress is also very Mischa; it's elegant and Chanel-like."
